1847 Hawaii Cent, Choice Uncirculated, Red and Brown. Cleaned. This interesting coin was made by Hulseman, the creator of the 1837 Half Cent "Hard Times" Token. The initial reaction of the Hawaiians upon seeing the first examples of their coins was disgust. The denomination was spelled incorrectly on the reverse and the image of the King was far from accurate. Although the designs did not meet the specs submitted by the Hawaiian King, the coins were accepted and actually circulated in Hawaii until the early 1880's, when the new silver issues appeared. Today, they are highly prized by collectors. ..... (850-1,250)

1847 Hawaii Cent, Uncirculated, Brown. Glossy brown and probably choice, but with some staining and light porosity in patches on both sides. weight; whereas, by the act of Congress of the 9th of February, 1793, they are made a legal tender at about eighty-seven cents the pennyweight, or in the language of the act "at the rate of one hundred cents for every twenty-seven grains and two-fifths of a grain, of the actual weight thereof," which creates a loss on the part of the citizens of the United States, of twenty-seven dollars and forty-two cents on one thousand pennyweight. The official certificate of the assayer is inclosed with this report.

All which is respectfully submitted to the President.

(Signed) ELIAS BOUDINOT, Director of the Mint of the United States.

January 2, 1801.

Mint of the United States, 5th, of 1st Month, 1801.

At the request of the director of the mint, I do hereby certify, that on carefully assaying a number of Spanish milled doubloons of different dates and complexions, I found their degree of fineness corresponded with each other to great exactness; but that their real value in proportion to gold coins of the United States, was no more than 84 cents and 424 parts of a cent, for one pennyweight or 28 grains and 24256 parts of a grain, to one dollar.

JOSEPH RICHARDSON.

Assayer to the mint of the United States.

1048 February 27, 1801, THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER, AND WASHINGTON ADVERTISER, Washington City, Choice Very Fine. 4 pages, 17" x 10," disbound, scattered foxing, uniform age toning. Page 3 has an account of national reaction to the election of Thomas Jefferson as President (joyous) and a notice of the publication of Jefferson's "A Manuel of Parliamentary Practice, For the use of the Senate of the United States." Of great importance to coin collectors and numismatic researchers is the publication, on page 4, of the Mint Director's report for the year 1801, plus the results of an assay by Joseph Richardson that showed the value of Spanish gold doubloons to be less than that specified by law. Great numismatic content. ..... (350-450)
